

Crooked River National Grassland Alternatives

Alternatives I and B—Modified

MA-G1 Antelope Winter Range - Manage for optimum Winter Range conditions for Antelope in conjunction with the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife.

MA-G2 Metolius Deer Winter Range - Manage for Big Game Winter Range habitat.

MA-G3 General Forage - Manage for forage production and utilization in a manner consistent with Forest-wide Standards and Guides for other resources.

MA-G4 Research Natural Areas - Provide opportunities for research, education, and ecological benchmarks in naturally occurring ecosystems where natural processes are maintained.

MA-G5 Juniper Old Growth - Provide habitat for wildlife species dependent on Old Growth stands.

MA-G6 Crooked River Recreation River - Management will maintain the appearance of a natural landscape to enhance and protect recreational values.

MA-G7 Deschutes River Scenic Corridor - Manage for scenic quality and natural appearance of the landscape.

MA-G8 Squaw Creek - Provide opportunities for Semiprimitive Nonmotorized recreation in a pristine canyon setting while protecting and enhancing the Deer Winter Range habitat and fisheries.

MA-G9 Riparian - Manage streamside vegetation and habitat in order to maintain or improve water quality, meeting temperature and turbidity levels as required by state standards under the Clean Water Act.

MA-G10 Rimrock Springs Wildlife - Provide unique habitat (wetlands, ponds, springs) within the juniper-sagebrush steppe, characteristic of Central Oregon's high desert. Provide for nonconsumptive (viewing, photography) wildlife uses in a natural setting.

MA-G11 Haystack Reservoir - Provide users with a system of quality Facilities that are safe and environmentally sound. Continue to emphasize camping, picnicking, boating, fishing, and swimming.

MA-G12 Cove Palisades State Park - Manage for developed campgrounds and water related recreational activities.

MA-G13 Lake Billy Chinook View - Maintain the natural appearing character of the viewshed from Lake Billy Chinook, where management activities are not evident or are visually subordinated to the surrounding landscape.

MA-G14 Dispersed Recreation - Provide and maintain a near-natural setting for people to utilize while pursuing outdoor recreation experiences.

MA-G15 Gray Butte Electronic Site - Accommodate electronic transmission Facilities. The site is limited to low power output electronic equipment.

Alternatives A, C—Modified, and E—Departure

MA-G6 Crooked River Recreation River - Management will maintain the appearance of a natural landscape to enhance and protect recreational values.

MA-G7 Deschutes River Scenic Corridor - Manage for scenic quality and natural appearance of the landscape.

MA-D1 General Forage - Production of forage while meeting Standards and Guides for all resources.

MA-D2 Big Game Winter Range - Manage for Big Game Winter Range habitat.

MA-D3 Big Game Summer Range - Manage for Big Game Summer Range habitat.

MA-D5 Retention Foreground - Provide a scenic, natural view so that management activities are not evident in the foreground.

MA-D6 Partial Retention Foreground - Provide a scenic, near natural view where management activities remain visually subordinate to the natural landscape in the foreground.

MA-D8 Wilderness - Protect the wilderness ecosystems. Manage use to maintain a natural setting and preserve solitude.

MA-D9 Semiprimitive Nonmotorized - Provide roadless nonmotorized recreation opportunities in a natural or natural appearing setting with minimum sights and sounds of human activity.

MA-D12 Research Natural Areas - Provide opportunities for research, education, and ecological benchmarks in naturally occurring ecosystems where natural processes are maintained.

